Toys collected for vulnerable children

STAFF at a funeral home in Dagenham have been busy collecting children's toys to help vulnerable youngsters across the borough over Christmas.

The toys were presented to Major Nigel Schultz of the Salvation Army on Wednesday.

Major Schultz said: "At this very needy time, this has been a fantastic effort by The Co-operative Funeralcare in Gale Street to help so many children."

Lorraine Gunner, funeral arranger, said: "Christmas is a special time and we believe that all children should feel the magic of Christmas."

"Every donation will help the important work by the Salvation Army to ensure all children in our community receive a present."

"We want to thank everyone who donated a toy to our appeal as your gift will make such a big difference."

VISIT FROM DELEGATION

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

SENIOR members of Pakistan's parliament visited Waltham Forest to hear about political extremism – just a week before extremists killed more than 130 children in their home country.

Waltham Forest Council welcomed seven guests including Senator Muhammad Mohsin Khan Leghari, member for defence, to see how the borough was combating extremism and preventing radicalisation.

The tour came less than a fortnight before the Taliban allegedly claimed responsibility for an attack on a school in the city of Peshawar.

Councillor Liaquat Ali, Waltham Forest Council's cabinet member for community safety and cohesion, told the party how the council was educating children in all schools about the dangers of extremism.

He said: "The delegation expressed a great deal of interest in the work we have been doing with local partners and community organisations to tackle extremism and radicalisation, and to have this work recognised in such a way is obviously good news for Waltham Forest."

Competition

Win tickets to the creative crafts show

LOOK forward to the New Year with new workshops, new crafts and new designs at the Creative Crafts Show in January.

The event, which runs from Thursday to Saturday, January 22 to 24, 2015, at Sandown Park Exhibition Centre, Esher, Surrey, offers the perfect chance for anyone to try something new for 2015.

With 80 exhibitors under one roof, keen crafters can also take advantage of show offers to stock up on supplies of their favourite craft items, as well as meet local crafters, and get advice and inspiration.

The show, which runs from 10am to 5pm daily, offers a great mix of crafts for everyone – whether you like to knit, quilt, stitch, crochet, or enjoy paper crafts, stitch craft, painting, card making or sugarcraft. Visit stands full of craft goodies, and enjoy free demonstrations, show offers, workshops and Make and Take sessions, as well as a few new additions this year.

Renowned sugarcraft expert and author Ann Pickard will be at the Creative Crafts Show in Surrey for the first time this year, hosting five sugarcraft Make and Take sessions every day.

AbbieAnne Patchwork will be using her new Daisy Shadow design in FreeFlo Shadow Applique workshops, while Tracy Quinn Glass Sun Katchers will be offering a great introduction to stained glass copper foiling with her new heart design.

Try arm knitting, a fun and easy way to knit without needles; enjoy a Knitting Surgery with Fiona Morris offering help and advice on reading patterns and techniques, or take along your unfinished project for her help; create a beach hut postcard with acrylic paints on hand painted fabric at Anne Moore's Make and Take session; or make a merino mobile phone case with FLEWS Group.

For further information about the event, which offers plenty of free parking, a free shuttle bus from Esher station, and free admission for accompanied under 16s as well as accompanying carers, visit www.scc-shows.co.uk

To win one of 30 pairs of tickets to the show just answer the following question.

Fighting extremism

"We continue to do all we can to promote community cohesion and combat extremism through a range of initiatives and outreach projects – and taking opportunities to share examples of best practice will only help reinforce our efforts."

Other points mentioned included the work police were undertaking to address extremist content on the internet.

The talks finished with a question and answer sessions and presentations about community safety and cohesion.

The visit – hosted by the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association UK – was part of a four-day programme designed to give Pakistan's MPs an insight into the work carried out by different authorities and organisations to support the UK's national security.

Councillors heard a report in a community safety scrutiny committee called Preventing Extremism in Waltham Forest.

Members were reminded that the threat level to the UK from international terrorism remains "severe" with the priority concern being Islamist terrorists following the murder of Lee Rigby in Woolwich in May 2013.

THE delegation of MPs from Pakistan included:

● Senator Muhammad Mohsin Khan Leghari, Member Senate Standing Committee on Defence.

● Omar Ayub Khan, MNA, Chairman National Assembly Standing Committee on Finance, Revenue, Economic Affairs, Statistics and Privatization.

● Senator Nawabzada Saifullah Magsi, Member Senate Standing Committees on Cabinet Secretariat, Water and Power, Law and Justice and Parliamentary Affairs.

● Sufyan Yusuf, MNA, Chairman, National Assembly Standing Committee on Communication.

● Syeda Zahra Fatemi, MNA, Member National Assembly's Standing Committees on Information Technology and Telecommunication; National Health Services, Regulations and Coordination.

● Ahmed Bilal Mehboob, President of the Pakistan Institute of Legislative Development and Transparency (PILDAT).

● Aasiya Riaz, Joint Director PILDAT.

Tribute to football players' sacrifice

HONOUR: Steve Jenkins, right, with Peter Kitchen remember players who enlisted in the Footballers' Battalion on December 15, 1914

FOOTBALL supporters from Leyton Orient and Southend United congregated at Fulham Town Hall on Monday to mark exactly 100 years since the first players signed up to the 17th Battalion Middlesex Regiment, more commonly known as the Footballers' Battalion.

On December 15, 1914, 10 footballers from Clapton Orient, led the way by enlisting with the 25 players representing Arsenal, Bradford City, Chelsea, Croydon Common, Crystal Palace, Luton Town, Southend United, Tottenham and Watford who joined up to serve king and country in the Great War. Over the next few months a total of 41 players, staff and supporters of Clapton Orient joined the 17th, the O's being the first club to join up en masse.

Leyton Orient Supporters Club deputy chairman Steve Jenkins spent 15 years researching the story of the Footballers' Battalion, particularly those from Clapton Orient. With the help of friends and supporters he raised £15,000 to have a memorial erected on the Somme in the village of Flers, and brought the soldiers tales to the fore in his book, They Took the Lead.

He said: "Football continued after the outbreak of war, while cricket had finished and rugby union had ceased almost overnight. This was to lead to an outcry from the general public with players and clubs being verbally abused and supporters deciding not to watch their teams play."

Leyton Orient Buglers sound an emotional rendition of the Last Post, while there was an appearance from Peter Barnes from the FA and former Orient striker Peter Kitchen.

Mr Kitchen, who scored 49 goals in 114 appearances, said: "It's an absolutely wonderful occasion and remembrance ceremony of the Footballers' Battalion."

"Footballers are much maligned at times, but in those days they answered the call of duty and went forth for king and country with many of them giving their lives. I think it's very important we remember them and the contribution they made was a wonderful thing."

IN TUNE: Pupils from Greenleaf Primary School perform at The Mall

Children's choirs sing carols for shoppers

The choirs entertained shoppers with Christmas carols to help raise money for community causes and charities.

Waltham Forest Mayor Terry Wheeler, who attended the choirs' fundraising event, said: "It is lovely to see schools from Chingford, Leyton and Walthamstow coming together keeping up the tradition of carol singing in The Mall."

The singing schoolchildren attended at Santa's new neon-themed grotto at The Mall Walthamstow. The event was staged with Waltham Forest Music Service and The Mall.

Pupils' results hit new heights

CHILDREN in Waltham Forest are meeting national standards for reading, writing and maths for the first time ever.

Department for Education figures reveal that 81 per cent of the borough's schools are achieving level 4 or above in the three subjects.

The rise means the average child in the borough is now achieving above the national average for the first time.

Councillor Mark Rustling, cabinet member for children, said: "This is a fantastic set of results and huge congratulations must go to our excellent primary schools, their dedicated teaching staff and of course the thousands of hard-working young pupils in Waltham Forest."

"Seeing our primaries performing so well is great for local families as it gives them added confidence that their children are receiving the education they deserve. But the hard work isn't over, because we want the improvements to continue so that our schools become even better."

The results see Waltham Forest's national rank move to 34 out of 152 – and establish the borough as the most improved local authority in London in terms of its jump in ranking.

Outcomes for disadvantaged pupils are the highest ever with 75 per cent achieving level 4 or above in reading, writing and maths.

This equals the London average for disadvantaged pupils, the 2013 Waltham Forest average for all pupils and is 8 per cent higher than the average for disadvantaged pupils nationally.

For more information about the borough's schools visit www.walthamforest.gov.uk.

Fight against flights creating 'noise ghetto'

NOISE: Flight paths involving aircraft from City Airport look set to change over Waltham Forest

CAMPAIGNERS are fighting plans to change flight paths over Chingford.

Waltham Forest Council has asked the Civil Aviation Authority and London City Airport to re-consult over its plans to move the journeys over the borough's airspace.

The initial consultation finished on Thursday, November 27, but council chiefs claim they were only involved with the process late on.

All aircraft travelling to and from London City Airport could use a flightpath over the borough, described as a potential "noise ghetto".

Councillor Clyde Loakes, Waltham Forest Council's cabinet member for environment, has expressed his concerns.

He said: "I have to say that I have been disappointed by the manner in which the consultation was carried out."

"There are still a lot of local people who remain unaware of the proposals or the impact they could have on their quality of life."

"It wasn't until very late on in the consultation period that they finally agreed to come to the borough and hold a public meeting."

"This was not the council meeting that I had called for and was so belated and hastily arranged that many local residents couldn't attend and those that did then had just a few days to get their responses in."

"I called for the consultation to be extended, but unfortunately City Airport weren't prepared to take that advice."

"I think this is too important an issue to progress without a really concerted effort to engage with the people impacted, and I think that means re-consulting local residents."

Currently, flightpaths are much wider, with long and short haul flights taking different paths.

The proposed changes will not in themselves see an increase in the level of air traffic, but there may be an increase in the concentration of flights over some areas.

A spokesman for the Civil Aviation Authority said: "London City Airport carried out its consultation, in conjunction with the air traffic control body NATS, as part of a wider piece of work to make airspace in the south east of England more efficient."

"Their stakeholder consultation was open to comment from residents' groups and local authorities, as well as aviation industry stakeholders."

"Now that London City Airport has concluded its consultation, we anticipate the airport will submit an airspace change proposal for the CAA's consideration."

"Although the environmental impact of any change to flight paths is important, safety considerations have to be CAA's overriding concern when considering any change."

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

"Wonderful job from start to finish. No hassle from Joel when he first visited and brilliant installation, team working in hot conditions. Thank you so much, so happy with the job!"

Mrs Phillips

"Great job and a pleasant experience. Having had bad experiences with home improvement companies in the past it was a relief to deal with Dolphint. No pressure, no messing around, kept us informed at every stage and did a lovely job, our house looks so much better now"

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', 'ltf' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies.

However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

LIVERANI SWITCH FAILS TO PAY OFF

Leyton Orient

Leyton Orient 1
Peterborough United 2
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

FABIO Liverani began his reign as the fourth man in the Orient hot seat in the space of three months, but saw his new charges slip into the drop zone following their sixth home defeat of a disappointing season.

Shaun Batt cancelled out an Aaron McLean opener, but Erhun Oztumer hit a second-half winner. Posh's Joe Newell was sent-off in stoppage time for a second yellow card.

The O's nearly made the perfect start when Dean Cox was denied by a spectacular second minute Jack Payne goal line block, as the east Londoners set about impressing the new management.

But, despite the O's promising opening, Posh got their noses in front, on nine minutes, when Craig Mackail-Smith created the space for Joe Newell to find the unmarked former Orient trainee, McLean, who volleyed home from close in.

The O's - however - didn't let their heads drop and finally got their reward on 39 minutes when Bradley Pritchard cleverly cushioned Cox's pass and Batt netted with a fine, low

Posh hit back and another former 'O' - Harry Beautyman - should have restored their lead when Adam Legzdins made a complete hash of Kgosi Ntlhe's cross, but the new signing from Welling United volleyed wide of an open goal.

The hapless keeper then spilled a Kgosi Ntlhe cross - as the Orient goal began to enjoy a charmed life.

In stoppage time Scott Cuthbert had former Orient

Alnwick, grappling at a powerful angled drive, as the O's ended the first-half in a high note.

All Orient's hard work was soon undone by a needless Nathan Clarke trip on McLean, straight after the break. Oztumer then netted, but Legzdins was too easily beaten after allowing the free-kick to fly into a largely unguarded top corner.

Content to sit on their lead, Posh never looked like conceding, to leave Liverani explaining away another home reverse: "There are eight players injured and one suspended, so it's difficult to say what is good and what is bad. But, there were many positive aspects of the game today. They scored two goals from minor distractions on our part. I think we deserved a draw."

United boss, Darren Ferguson, added: "We showed today some of the good form we displayed at the start of the season. I am pleased with the performance today - but we should have made the points safe. But, it's a step in the right direction."

Skipper Clarke admitted: "We conceded a foul straight after the break - and it's cost us the game. We played some good stuff - nice and positive - and tried to do exactly what the manager asked us to do. Peterborough only really had two shots at goal - and both went in."

Orient make the long trip to mid-table Barnsley this Saturday.

Leyton Orient: Adam Legzdins, Scott Cuthbert, Nathan Clarke (captain), Shane Lowry, Gary Sawyer, Bradley Pritchard, Romain Vincelot, Josh Wright, Dean Cox, Jobi McAnuff (Ayomide Adeniyi 84), Shaun Batt (Jay Simpson 63).

Attendance: 5546

Non-league round-up

Beach Boys hold Bees

by Brian Jeeves

10-MAN Concord Rangers produced a fantastic FA Trophy first round performance as Conference Premier League leaders Barnet escaped from the Aspect Arena with a goalless draw.

Beach Boys defender Danny Glozier received his marching orders following a professional foul at the start of the second half. But the Canvey based outfit more than held their own and earned a replay against a team currently ranked the best non-league side in England.

Braintree Town were also in Trophy action. A second half Simeon Akinola strike earning the Iron a single goal derby victory over AFC Sudbury.

In the Vanarama Conference South there was a dramatic finish at the Melbourn Stadium where Chelmsford City piped Eastbourne Borough by the odd goal in five. Southend United loanee Jason Williams continued to shine for the Claret, grabbing a brace including a last minute winner, with Mark Hughes also on target. Sinclair and Pinney replied for Boro.

In the Ryman Premier Division East Thurrock United were involved in an entertaining encounter at Wingate & Finchley. Connor Witherspoon, Reece Harris, Lewis Smith and Sam Higgins found the net for the Rocks in a 4-3 success. Canvey Island saw off Peacehaven & Telscombe 2-1 at the Prospects Stadium, Harrison Chatting and John Easterford on target for the Gulls, while there were draws for Billericay Town, 2-2 with Lewes at New Lodge, and AFC Hornchurch, 0-0 with Kingstonsian at Bridge Avenue.

However, it wasn't such a good day for Grays Athletic who crashed 3-1 at Leatherhead.

In Division One North Great Wakering Rovers pulled off a thrilling 5-3 win at Maldon & Tiptree. Liam Nash, Jay Nash, Billy Johnson (2) and player-manager Dan Trenkel were on target for the villagers, Nathan Korangten (2) and Alex Andrews responding for the Jammers.

Aaron Gayle grabbed the only goal as Heybridge Swifts won 1-0 at Chatham Town, and Redbridge also picked up maximum points, beating Dereham Town 2-1.

Romford and Waltham Abbey played out a 1-1 draw, but the news from our other clubs was less encouraging. Tilbury went down 3-2 at home to Harlow Town, Rimmel Daniel and Thomas Wood on target for the Dockers either side of the interval. Aveley were sunk 3-0 as Brightlingsea Regent were the visitors, and there was a 2-0 setback for Thurrock at Needham Market, Michael Brothers grabbing a pair for the winners.

Rock bottom Burnham Ramblers continued to struggle. This time the Mid-Essex outfit crashed 6-2 at Soham Town Rangers.

In the Essex Senior League Waltham Forest were top scorers of the day, thrashing Sporting Bengal United 4-0. Newham impressively won 3-1 at Enfield 1893 and it was the same outcome at Cricklefield Stadium, where FC Romania beat hosts Ilford. Elsewhere Haringey Borough won 2-1 at Tower Hamlets.

Quarter final clashes

Football

DAGENHAM & Redbridge against Concord Rangers is one of the highlights of the Essex Senior Cup Quarter-Final Draw which was announced last week.

With just one Fourth Round fixture outstanding there are seven teams definitely through from the Ryman League to the Sky Bet Football League.

The Daggers, who last lifted the trophy in 2001 and knocked out Waltham Abbey in Round Four, will host the holders Concord, who came through a penalty shootout at home to Grays Athletic at the last stage.

The only remaining last 16 tie sees Redbridge host Canvey Island on Tuesday. The winners of that clash will earn a home Quarter-Final against 2013 champions AFC Hornchurch.

Of additional interest was the local derby generated between Aveley and Thurrock, whose grounds are separated by just over a mile.

The Millers recorded an impressive 3-2 victory over Chelmsford City last time around, while their neighbours secured an equally notable 4-1 success against Vanarama Conference outfit Braintree Town. Billericay Town, the 2011 winners who beat Harlow Town 3-2, entertain one of only two sides remaining to have never reached the final, Brightlingsea Regent.

Ben Fryer from the BBC Essex Sports Team assisted with the draw by pulling the home teams from the bag at the station's Chelmsford studios, with Essex County FA chief executive Phil Sammons responsible for the away clubs.

These Quarter-Finals are due to be completed on or before Saturday January 24.

Lauren makes point to selectors

LAUREN Deadman shrugged off the disappointment of missing out on European Championship selection to record an emphatic victory at the South of England Inter Counties Championships at Oxford on Saturday.

Lauren lead from start to finish, gradually extending her lead until she finished some 200m in front of Surrey's second placed Georgie Bruinvels, helping Essex to win team silver medal in the process. Lauren gains her next international vest this coming Sunday, having been selected to run for England in Brussels, where her teammates will be runner-up at Oxford Bruinvels, Ashley Gibson (Tonbridge) and Katie Hewison (Horwich).

Lydia Hallam also showed good form to finish seventh in the Under 20 Women's race, with Bella Woods also in the silver medal winning scoring quartet in 33rd.

Kate O'Neill (25th) and Sophie Rand (52nd) both did well for the fourth placed Under 15 Girls while Molly Sweetman gained her first county vest finishing 78th in the Under 13 competition.

Three boys were also in county action with Tom Sheldrick (59th) and Lewis Debenham (72nd) contesting the U15 Boys race, while Oliver Woods was 84th in the Under 13 Boys squad.

Extraordinary families...

Foster

Michelle and Jake live in Chingford Mount with their parents. Their older brother Michael has left home already to live with his partner.

Michelle, 19, has just started a health and social care course and hopes to go into nursing, Jake, 17 is learning to become a professional chef.

About a year and half ago while sitting around having Sunday lunch Jake started telling his family about a friend who had been fostered.

"I had been around his house and met his foster parents. He told me he had been living there since he was 13 years old 'cos of problems at home but he was settled now. My mum wondered if we could foster as we had a spare room now Michael had moved out. My dad loves kids and teaches youth football on Saturdays and my mum still helps out at Brownies. When we asked Michael he said go for it.

This year Sam who is 14, will be having his first Christmas with us. He misses his family and it wasn't easy when he first came - he wasn't sure if we really cared about how he was feeling but now he sees us as family too. We're all looking forward to dad dressing up as Santa - we'll have a big laugh about that."
